

EMIL SIRIWARDANE
Statement of Outside Activities
February 6, 2019

Harvard Business School's Policy on Conflicts of Interests requires faculty members to disclose all paid and unpaid activities with outside organizations (i.e., organizations not associated with Harvard University or Harvard Business School), sources of incremental compensation paid by Harvard University, and sources of external research funding during the previous three years if they are directly related to a specific work product (e.g., an article, book, case study, speech, or class) that is in the public domain. Although not required by the Policy, some faculty members also provide a comprehensive disclosure statement describing all of their outside activities.

Current and Past Paid Outside Activities:

2018-present	Instructor for the Finance for Senior Executives program, HBS Executive Education
2016-2017	IPA for Office of Financial Research (OFR), U.S. Treasury Department.
2016	Risk Management Consultant, American International Group, Inc. (AIG).

Current and Past Unpaid Activities:

2018-present	Consultant for National Democratic Redistricting Committee (NDRC)
2016-2017	Research Consultant for Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC)

Sources of External Funding:

2017	Macro Financial Modeling Group Research Grant, Funded by the Sloan Foundation, the Becker Friedman Institute and the MIT Laboratory for Financial Engineering
------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------